Adult Program

Rainy Day Reading Reviews is a program developed by the Aberdeen Timberland Library to engage local booklovers.

Here's how it works: a library patron or friend is asked to read a book of her or his choosing, prepare a review of the book, then offer the review in-person and out-loud at a public gathering. It's all about reading, reflecting, and sharing.

January 5: Wes Brosman reviews "The Road to Little Dribbling: Adventures of an American in Britain" by Bill Bryson.

January 12: Nancy Neisinger will review "Musicophilia: Tales of Music and the Brain" by Oliver Sacks.

January 19: Harold Warren reviews "Of Orcas and Men: What Killer Whales Can Teach Us" by David Neiwert.

January 26: Barbara Johnson will review "Oysterville: Roads to Grandpa's Village" by Willard R. Espy.

February 2: Dale Larson reviews "The Mozart Forgeries" by Daniel N. Leeson.

February 9: Judy Isaacson will review "Sing, Unburied, Sing: A Novel" by Jesmyn Ward.

February 16: Alan Richrod reviews "What Would Jefferson Do?: A Return to Democracy" by Thom Hartmann.

February 23: Pamela Mehlhoff reviews "The Devil in the White City: Murder, Magic, and Madness at the Fair That Changed America" by Erik Larson.

Timberland Regional Library District provides for the entertainment, information, and lifelong learning needs of Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county residents at 27 community public libraries and six library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes, timber tax, fundraising efforts of TRL Friends of the Library, and generous donations by individual supporters. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's programs may contact the library one week in advance.
