White Privilege:
The Other Side of Racial Inequality

Thursday, April 19
5:30 - 7 p.m.
for adults

Lacey Timberland Library

Conversations about racial inequality usually focus on the disadvantages faced by people of color in American society. But there is another side to this inequality: privilege—the advantages that white people experience because of their race.

Pacific Lutheran University Sociology professor Teresa Ciabattari leads an interactive conversation that explores what white privilege is, discusses a variety of examples of privilege for individuals and institutions, and provides tools for learning how to address it. Participants will gain knowledge and resources to foster inclusion and racial justice in their own communities.

This program is co-sponsored by Humanities Washington and the Friends of the Lacey Timberland Library.
