Opioid Overdose Prevention Workshop

Tuesday, May 22

7 - 8 p.m.

for adults

North Mason Timberland Library

Opioid addiction affects the family and friends of the users. Learn what opioids are, how to recognize an overdose and when to intervene. Workshop will take place after normal library hours, no other services will be available.

Mason County Public Health

A representative from MCPH will present the program. They will discuss harm reduction, being non-judgmental, the risks for overdose, how to recognize an overdose, how to respond, and when to intervene. Learn more information about Naloxone, the medication used to rapidly reverse opioid overdose. Free kits available while supplies last.

Affected opioid users, their family members and friends would benefit from this workshop, along with professionals who come across opioid use in their fields.
